

Aisan Industry Czech, s.r.o. produces high quality electric fuel pumps, pump modules and carbon canisters, throttle bodies and aluminium casted parts, while using the processes and procedures respecting law and ethical rules in relation to employees, customers and environment.

Our mission is:

To Continuously Improve Environment and Safety by reasonable usage of sources, sorting of wastes and by Environmental programs.

To Implement methods that minimize impact on the environment by friendly and economical way while ensuring the safety of our employees, customers and suppliers.

To educate and motivate employees in the Safe systems of work and Environment protection.

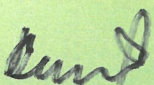

To set measurable goals for improving the conditions of working safety systems and the protection of the environment, including their continuous evaluation and information on the results achieved.

To Develop and prefer suppliers who minimize the negative impact of their activities on the Environment.

To Abide law and regulation concerning Environment and safety systems.

Safety and EMS 2021 targets	Responsibility	Date
Electricity consumption reduction – installation of LED saving lightning to the C plant area – sections FPM, EFP, MM-C, DM-C	BA	5/2021
Construction of a treatment plant and re-use of wastewater from the production and cooling proces as service water – vakuum evaporation separation system	BA	8/2021
Planting of trees in the Cítoliby municipality area	BA, HRM	5/2021
To start using of waste plastic material regranulate mixed with new material in production PA 66 GF 35% - Zytel) - realization	IE	12/2021
Reduction of minor injuries to 17 per year	AIC	12/2021

Helena Pernetová

Václav Douša

EP 001

Miloš Kubelík

In Louny 23th Feb 2021

Teijiro Takamura

